

Plagiarism

What is Plagiarism?

Plagiarism is attempting to pass off other students work or copy from an external source and ideas as your own.

Plagiarism can include:

- Copying from another learner, copying from books, photograph or the internet, using someone else's research without referencing
-